1 On the date and time and in the place indicated above, I saw the above-named individual before me,
 2 and I said to him, I, a police officer, whose details are indicated above, inform you that I am about to 3 question you and take your statement further to the statements that you gave during your questioning 4 on April 23, 2002, and April 25, 2002. In addition, I remind you that you are being questioned under 5 caution and that you need not say anything unless you want to; however, anything you say will be 6 taken down by me and may be used as proof. Abstention from responding to questions may 7 strengthen the evidence against you.

 10 After I read before the above-named individual the statement above and translated it into the Arabic language for him, which he understands, he confirmed with his signature that he understood the content of the charge and the warning, and said of his good free will:
 11 I want to tell you further to what I said in my statement. In 1993, I went out with the Shabiba movement in Anbata Tulkarm. When I was aged 14-15, I was approached in the neighborhood by Muafak Hassan Abu Ramla, aged about 30, married, known as Abu Hamad, a resident of Anbata, who suggested that I come with him for "activity", without telling me what he meant by activity.
 Before the activity, Muafak Hassan Abu Ramla asked me to bring a tape recorder with me. And I brought the tape recorder from home and at ten at night I departed with (1) Muafak Hassan Abu Ramla; (2) Samir Najib Noor, today aged about 28-30, a police officer in the Palestinian Authority, living in Anbata, and we went out on foot to the home of the Hasham Abu Zarar, aged about 35, married, working as a painter (Dahayan) and living in Anbata; together with us six-seven masked men came, and then we took Hasham Abu Zarar to a hill in Anbata, and we used force because Hasham Abu Zarar wanted to escape, and we seized and tied his hands (Rabtana) with a cloth. And then we came to the hill in Anbata [illegible; crossed out] and after that

1 masked men stayed there and Muafak Hassan Abu Ramla and I returned to the village. Before
 2 Muafak and I went down, Muafak Abu Ramla took the tape recorder from me and gave it to a masked
 3 man. [illegible; crossed out]
 4 And on the following day Muafak Abu Zahar returned the tape recorder to me, and after about 4-5
 5 days I saw Hasham Abu Zarar in good physical condition. In the eighth month of 2001, Wafa Idris 6 recruited me as a source (Mansour) for military intelligence (Isthabarat) and introduced me to 7 Mohamed Katal; each time I had information, I would forward that information to Mohamed Katal. In 8 my first statement I said that his name was Mohamed Katal [illegible; crossed out] and he is 9 Mohamed Mahtasab Abu Ibrahim, but his real name is Kamal a-Din, aged about 40, whose is known 10 as Abu Talal, married and living in Bitunia and he hails from Kafr Laban, and he is tall, mustached, 11 fat and fair complexioned. In that period I worked and brought information of suspicions (Shibha) of 12 vice (alhalkiya) and theft: (1) Ahmed Ramadan, aged about 30, married, known as Abu Yusef, an 13 ambulance driver, a resident of Ramallah; (2) Mohamed Farah Awad, aged about 32, married, a first 14 aid (Asaf) center manager, living in Kafr Akab, who used to live in the U.S.; (3) Faik Hassin, aged 15 about 50, married, a deputy manager of the Red Crescent (Hilal al Ahmar) in Ramallah. A resident of 16 Ramallah, he was suspected of stealing money; (4) Mohamed Adal Hababa, aged about 30, married, 17 Abu Adal, an ambulance driver and a cleaner in Jerusalem, a resident of Beit Iksa. On January 2001, 18 he talked to me about military issues. Abu Talal talked with me about a suicide attack in Israel and 19 that this time a woman was sent, and the talk about the woman and the suicide raised the name of 20 Wafa Idris. Abu Talal asked me what I thought about Wafa. I said to him that I did not know and we 21 should ask her. And then Abu Talal approached Wafa Idris and invited her to his home

1 In the home of Abu Talal, we sat down, Abu Talal and Wafa Idris and I, and we talked about the 2 subject; I mean a suicide attack. And then initially Wafa Idris agreed and afterward she changed her
 3 mind. We said that the attack would be in Jerusalem, we did not say where in Jerusalem. Wafa Idris
 4 changed her mind because I told her that I was going down to Jerusalem, meaning that I would be a 5 partner with her in the attack, and because of this Wafa withdrew her consent, and she did not want to 6 be the reason that would endanger (Tathar) me.
 7 And then Wafa Idris said that she would only put the explosive device in Jerusalem and so a suicide
 8 bomber would not be needed, and then Abu Talal agreed and said, no problem "Mafish Mushkala".
 9 After two days, Wafa Idris traveled to Jerusalem to go around the city and to check whether there
 10 were soldiers, checkpoints, and after that she returned to Abu Talal's house, and said that it was worth 11 carrying out the attack in Yaffo Street, because there were many people there, and I was with her in 12 Abu Talal's house. Abu Talal said to her: "Tomorrow I will call you and explain to her what she must 13 do". This means how the explosive device will be activated. The explosive device had a clock 14 connected to it. The day before the attack the three of us, Abu Talal and Wafa Idris and I, met in Abu 15 Talal's house in the industrial area in Bitunia, and Abu Talal said to Wafa that she should come to the 16 Nablus Gate with the explosive device, give the explosive device to a young man who I do not know 17 and return; the young man knows what to do with the explosive device. Wafa Idris agreed to transfer 18 the explosive device to Jerusalem. On the day of the attack, Wafa Idris was late in arriving and taking 19 the explosive device from Abu Talal. Wafa Idris should have been at Mohamed Abu Talal's place at 20 half past nine in the morning, but she was late and arrived at half past ten in the morning. She took the 21 explosive device and traveled to Jerusalem, I do not know with which vehicle. Wifa Idris came to the 22 Nablus Gate and saw the young man

1	and said to him that she [illegible; crossed out] would place the explosive device by herself. The
2	young man telephoned Mohamed Abu Talal and told him that Wafa Idris would place the explosive
3	device by herself. Then Abu Talal said to him: it is not important who places the explosive device. I
4	know this because Abu Talal told me after the attack. At that time I was at work. An alarm clock was
5	connected to the explosive device and Abu Talal knew the time at which the device was supposed to
6	explode. When Abu Talal saw that the time was approaching, he called, from his mobile phone 059-
7	337647, Wafa Idris and told her that there were seven minutes left, and after that he called again and
8	told her that there were three minutes left. Wafa said to him "do not be scared about me" and hung up
9	the mobile phone. Abu Talal and I talked and our estimate (Tahlil) was that Wafa Idris had been
10	discovered with the explosive device and so [illegible; crossed out] she had not placed the explosive
11	device and after a few minutes the explosive device exploded.
12	Question: You work at the Red Crescent as a medic who is supposed to save life. After that you are
13	an accomplice in an attack in which people are killed.
14	Answer: I am explaining to you that I am not an accomplice, I just convinced Wafa to carry out the 15	attack.
16	Question: What happened after the attack?
17	Answer: Three days after the attack, on January 30, 2002, the Preventive Intelligence came to arrest
18	me. Abu Talal, who was at the site, argued with the Preventive Intelligence and told them that I was
19	under surveillance (Murtab) and that the military intelligence (Isthabarat) had to arrest me and then
20	Abu Talal took me to prison and told the prison warden, Abu Amadi, aged about 35, from Ramallah,
21	that I was not an ordinary detainee (Sajin Aadi) and that he had to guard me and give me and put me
22	in a room alone, without telling him why. After 40 days, Israeli aircraft bombed the Mukataa in
23	Ramallah and I was released. My parents asked me why they had arrested me.

1	I said because of my ties with Wafa Idris and in order to guard me from the security from the Preventive Intelligence and the IDF.
2	Question: What activity did Wafa Idris carry out that you know about?
3	Answer: She transferred cartridges from Qalandia checkpoint and transferred leaflets of the Fatah Organization to a-Ram checkpoint, and I know this because Wafa Idris told me.
4	Question: What is your additional activity? Investigator's comment: the above-named individual
5	wishes to go to the toilet. It is 4:20 p.m. I stop the statement and allow the above-named individual to
6	go to the toilet. It is now 4:30 p.m. I inform you that you are still being questioned under caution and
7	you do not have to say anything unless you want to, but whatever you say will be written down by me
8	and may be used as proof. Abstention from answering questions may strengthen the evidence against
9	you. (Investigator's comment – I read him the question from row 17).
10	Answer: Abu Talal approached me before Wafa Idris carried out the attack in Jerusalem and asked me
11	and suggested to me to transfer explosive devices in an ambulance. I refused because it would be a
12	mistake to involve the Red Crescent in military activity, but after Wafa Idris carried out the suicide
13	attack, I contacted Abu Talal and proposed that I drive explosive devices in the ambulance, but Abu
14	Talal said to me: forget about it, and asked me to bring him information about checkpoints, forces,
15	soldiers and arms and I gave him information about IDF forces before they went into Ramallah for
16	the first time.
17	This is his statement, which was given of his good free will, which was read to him and translated
